at 1600 on Tuesday 05 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A very cold night ahead, some showers in the southeast.

This Evening and Tonight:
Still a few showers near east coast and across the southeast, but it will generally be dry clear and cold with a widespread frost, severe in places. Patchy freezing fog.

Wednesday:
Much of mainland will stay dry and sunny through the day. A bright start for the Isles but rain will arrive towards mid afternoon, spreading southeast overnight, snow inland.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Rain, sleet and snow clearing on Thursday morning, then bright with the odd snow shower in north. Friday dry and bright. Patchy rain on Saturday and turning less cold.
